

I strongly object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air "Stolen Honor" just before the election and to claim that they are simply reporting the news and have no obligation to present fair and balanced reporting about the two candidates, as PBS's Frontline program did last night when it aired "The Choice."

This is blatant misuse of Sinclair's license for partisan political purposes and a violation of its duty to serve the public interest.

Thank you.